How far apart should I book my lessons?

I strongly suggest booking all your package lessons in advance within a week or two of each other at most. This will secure the specific times that work best for your schedule and avoid long gaps in training. Consistency is the secret to success; scheduling your sessions all at once maintains a steady learning momentum, ensuring techniques stay fresh in your mind. While following ICBC guidelines for 60 hours of total practice is vital, securing your professional spots early prevents missing out on peak times. This proactive approach helps you build skills progressively and keeps you on track for a successful road test.
